When registering with Steve Gardham please email gardhams@hotmail.com stipulating which 5 presentations you wish to attend and stating whether you are a teacher, music leader or other interested party. Your registration will be acknowledged and if any of the presentations are already fully subscribed you will be informed and asked if you would like to attend the parallel presentation.

Lunch is available to purchase in the museum. We recommend that you pre-order this as demand may be high on the day. The lunch menu consists of baked tatoes with various fillings, soup, Yorkshire pudding with various fillings, sausages, and home-baked cakes.

Tea, coffee and squash will be free and available throughout the day in the 2 meeting rooms.
