As Ah was walk-ing down Green Lane, Ah met with a col-lier lad,— 'E winked at me with 'is bon-ny blue eye, 'n asked me to be 'is charm-ing bride.

1. As Ah was walking down Green Lane, Ah met with a collier lad,
'E winked at me with 'is bonny blue eye, 'n asked me to be 'is charming bride.
2. Ah said, “No, no, Ah'm far too young, far too young for you.”
“The younger you are, the better for me, not quite sixteen years of age.”
3. 'E took me away and 'e locked me up, just like a bird in a gilded cage,
An' now Ah'm the mother of a child, not quite seventeen years of age.
4. Now all ye lasses tek a tip from me, never let a feller get an inch above your knee;
If you do you'll be just like me, always having kids on your knee.
