Old Jack Braddalar

Num - ber one, num - ber one, 'od my 'oss while I jump on. With a rum - tum - tad - da - lar, old Jack Bra - da - lar, coun - try lads are we.

1. Number one, number one, 'od my 'oss while I jump on.

Chorus:- With a rum-tum-taddalar, old Jack Braddalar, country lads are we.

2. Number two, number two, some wear a boot but I wear a shoe.
   Chorus

3. Number three, number three, some like coffee but I like tea.
   Chorus

4. Number four, number four, some jump in but I jump o'er.
   Chorus

5. Number five, number five, some are dead but I'm alive.
    Chorus

6. Number six, number six, I can chop some very fine sticks.
   Chorus

7. Number seven, number seven, some go to Hell but I'll go to Heaven.
    Chorus

8. Number eight, number eight, some are bent but I am straight.
    Chorus

9. Number nine, number nine, some drink beer but I drink wine.
    Chorus

10. Number ten, number ten, if tha wants any more tha mun sing it for thissen.
     Chorus